FERTILIZER FOR CITRUS

The people of Citrus county are about to establish a fertilizer factory somewhere in Citrus county, but they do not aspire so high as we do. They talk of one to cost from $15,000 to $20,000, which will likely be located at or near Inverness.

Artist Gottlieb took a flash light photograph of the Elks Banquet, which is a beautiful piece of work. They are almost completed and can be had next week. He also took a view of the Plant System advertisement display in the post office window this morning.

C. F. Faires, the hustling city ticket agent of the Plant System, has a corner on one of the show windows of the post office, and has dressed it off very artistically with big posters, pictures and bills of Plant System excursions, and an immense picture of the Tampa Bay Hotel. The floor is carpeted with Spanish moss, with flowers and plants growing naturally from the moss. Many are the big bills and divers the colors. The whole display is very pretty and attracts a great deal of attention.
